State Law reference— Unlawful practices in employment, O.C.G.A. § 45-19-29.

Sec. 70-41. - Equal employment opportunity.

- (a) The city will ensure equal employment opportunity for all employees and appointed representatives. This commitment includes a mandate to afford equal treatment and services to all citizens, employees and city representatives, and to assure equal employment opportunity based on ability and fitness to all persons regardless of race, religion, color, creed, national origin, sex, marital status, age or the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability unless such disability effectively prevents the performance of the essential duties required of the position and which are bona fide occupational qualifications which cannot be accommodated without undue hardship.
- (b) All activities relating to employment including recruitment, testing, selection, promotion training and termination shall be conducted in a nondiscriminatory manner.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-12)

Sec. 70-42. - Hours of work.

- (a) The normal working hours for employees shall be as scheduled by the various department heads, with such schedule to be established so that the needs of the department to deliver services to the citizens are met. Such schedule shall be approved by the city manager. Employees are expected to be at their work location and ready to begin work at the beginning of their work schedule. The meal periods should be scheduled to allow for continuous staffing of offices with at least one person, except where more personnel are required to be on duty.
- (b) The standardization of working hours is necessary to provide:
 - (1) Continuity in access by and service to the citizenry.
 - (2) Facilitation of teamwork.
 - (3) Facilitation of supervisory assistance.

- (c) Occasions may arise when the service to the citizen can be improved through the adjustment of an employee's work hours. The department head shall obtain approval of the city manager for the adjustment in work hours.
- (d) Individual requests for adjustment of working hours for personal reasons must be evaluated in light of the effect on the criteria enumerated in subsections (a)—(c) of this section.
- (e) Advance notice of anticipated tardiness is expected; notice of unavoidable tardiness is expected when possible. Failure to do so will be construed as an unexcused absence, and the day missed will not be paid. Tardiness must be made up during the pay period in which it occurs.
- (f) Notification by another employee, friend or relative is not considered proper except in an emergency situation where the employee is physically unable to make the notification.
- (g) Daily attendance records will be maintained by each department, including the date and time of each absence and the reason for each absence. Attendance shall be a consideration in determining promotions, transfers, satisfactory completion of probationary periods, and continued employment with the city. Frequent tardiness or other attendance irregularities shall be cause for disciplinary action. This may take the form of progressive discipline.
- (h) Hours for part-time and certain other employees may vary from the normal office hours noted above due to the nature of their duties and will be determined by the appropriate department head, with concurrence of the city manager.
- (i) The city may provide compensatory time off in lieu of cash overtime compensation for nonexempt and 207(k) employees. The compensatory time received may be preserved, used or cashed out consistent with the provisions of section 7(o) of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-13)

Sec. 70-43. - Work periods.

This section shall not apply to executive, professional, administrative and all other employees who are exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act. The following work periods may be changed to accommodate special work schedules, such as summer maintenance schedules:

- (1) The work period for any 24-hour shift firefighter shall be 28 days. All firefighters shall work a schedule of 24 hours on and 48 hours off for an average of 212 hours per 28-day period.
- (2) The work period for any sworn police officer shall be 14 days. All sworn officers will be scheduled for an average of 86 hours per 14-day period.
- (3) The work period for all other city employees shall be a seven-day period beginning on Thursday at 12:01 a.m. and continuing to Wednesday at 12:00 a.m. (midnight). The minimum work week for full-time employees shall be 40 hours.
- (4) With respect to 207(k) employees, where hours worked are not in excess of the applicable maximum hours standard, the city may give the employee time off for the hours worked in excess of those normally scheduled.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-14; Ord. No. 011-2007, 7-9-2007)

Sec. 70-44. - Nepotism.

- (a) It is the city's policy that immediate relatives will not be employed in regular full-time or part-time positions where:

- (1) One relative would have the authority to supervise, appoint, remove, discipline or evaluate the performance of the other.
 - (2) One relative would be responsible for auditing the work of the other.
 - (3) Other circumstances exist which would place the relatives in a situation of actual or reasonably foreseeable conflict between the city's interest and their own.
- (b) Where business necessity requires the limitation of employment opportunity of spouses, the means chosen to meet the business necessity shall be those which have the least adverse impact on spouses or members of either sex. For example, the exclusion should be limited to the job, work crew, shop or unit where the reason for exclusion exists, and should not bar the person from the whole work force, unless the reason applies to the whole work force. When it is necessary to exclude a person because of what his spouse does, then the city shall determine which employee it shall keep on the job. The city may require one spouse to quit 60 days after marriage if they become in violation of this policy and a mutually-agreeable solution cannot be reached between the city and the employees.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-15)

Sec. 70-45. - Probation period.

- (a) All employees placed in new full-time and part-time positions must serve a six-month period of probation, except sworn police officers and firefighters who serve a 12-month period of probation. This applies to new hires, promotions and transfers.
- (b) The probation period is designed to give the employee time to learn the position and to give the supervisor time to evaluate the employee's potential and performance. During the established probationary period, the city reserves the right to terminate the probationary employee's service on the basis of unsatisfactory performance or on the basis of other reasons deemed sufficient by the city.
- (c) If an employee is unable to perform the work, the person must be terminated as early as possible. Early termination saves the city a time and dollar investment and saves the employee possible embarrassment and frustration. Rejected probationers shall be notified of such action in writing by the department head at any time during the probationary period and a copy of such notification shall be retained in the personnel files.
- (d) Recurring, periodic performance evaluations are required for all probationary employees in full and part-time positions as well as for sworn police officers and fire fighters. An evaluation is required at the 90-day interval of probationary employment for regular full and part time positions that must complete six months of probation. For sworn police officers and fire fighters who serve one-year probationary periods, an evaluation at the six-month interval is required. These periodic evaluations are designed to assess performance and advise the new employee of work expectations as well as any deficiencies in work quality and quantity. At the close of the probationary period, an employee is required to be evaluated for a second time, demonstrating their competency in fulfilling the requirements of their position and being released from probationary status.
- (e) Under unusual circumstances, the probationary period may be extended. This is only after an evaluation of the situation, the employee's abilities and demonstrated potential. Probation extension is done only upon recommendation of the supervisor, department head and approved by the city manager.
- (f) If the employee successfully completes the probation period, he shall be informed that he is now a regular employee. This will be accomplished by the city manager's office with the approval of the appropriate department head via the personnel action form.
- (g) When an employee first becomes a regular full-time employee, he becomes eligible for vacation and other appropriate leaves retroactive to the person's beginning date of employment. This is defined as six months for general employees and 12 months for sworn police officers and firefighters. Exceptions to this policy may only be approved by the city manager or his designee.

- (h) If an individual has been transferred or promoted, he remains eligible for all fringe benefits included with the previous position during the probation period for the transfer or promotion. If the position to which an employee has been transferred or promoted carries benefits different from those of the previous position, the person becomes eligible for the benefits of the new position upon the satisfactory completion of the probation period retroactive to the date of the transfer or promotion.
- (i) If an emergency arises during an employee's probationary period which requires a leave of absence, such time off, if granted, will not be considered as time worked.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-16; Ord. No. 04-04-13, 4-13-2004; Ord. No. 2008-0016, Exh. A, 7-28-2008)

Sec. 70-46. - Reemployment.

Any former regular employee who resigned from the city in good standing is eligible for reemployment. Persons interested in reemployment should file a completed city application form with the city manager's office. The individual will then proceed through the regular hiring procedures with other applicants. The date of hire will take the person's previous service with the city into account, however, future increases will coincide with the reemployment date. The individual's previous personnel file will be reactivated once reemployed by the city provided reemployment is within seven years after the original resignation. All individuals reemployed by the city must complete a new probationary period. Employees who are allowed to return to the same position they left within 30 days of departure may elect to bridge their service with leave time at the discretion of the city manager.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-17)

Sec. 70-47. - Eligibility for benefits.

Nonexempt employee compensation will be stated in terms of hourly wage. Exempt and 207(k) employees are considered salaried. Employees classified as regular full-time employees shall receive all employee benefits provided by the city. Probationary employees shall be classified as regular full-time employees upon successful completion of their probationary periods, and shall be entitled to the same benefits as regular full-time employees subject to applicable eligibility provisions and time periods.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-18)

Sec. 70-48. - Hiring process.

The city manager's office will administer and coordinate the hiring process for all position vacancies to ensure compliance with contractual, legal and equal opportunity requirements. All hiring efforts are conducted in the spirit of equal opportunity.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-19)

Sec. 70-49. - Testing.

- (a) Examinations may be developed for certain positions based on the position's responsibilities, the qualifications required, and resources available. The examination may consist of oral interview/application review, a structured questionnaire, physical examination, practical tests, written tests, in-basket exercise or assessment center, etc. In all cases, the testing will be job related and designed to determine the candidate's knowledge, skills and abilities (KSA's) for the position. The examination contents are developed by the affected department Examination contents are confidential and unauthorized disclosure to any candidate is grounds for discipline. In certain situations, outside consultants may be contracted to assist with test development.

- (b) The department head shall ensure that all testing is based on bona fide occupational qualifications. The department head shall ensure that reasonable accommodations are made in test procedures to assure that persons with disabilities can be tested in an appropriate manner. The following are ways in which the city may accommodate an applicant with a disability:
 - (1) Replace written tests with on-the-job tests or verbal testing;
 - (2) Enlarge print in exams, magnification, amplification devices and interpreters.
- (c) All job applicants being considered for employment shall be required to pass a drug and alcohol screening test prior to being hired. All job applicants shall be informed in advance that such testing shall be required. Employees in safety sensitive positions or employees whose primary job duties require maintenance or operation of a motor vehicle or motorized equipment shall be required to submit to a drug and alcohol screening test at random or on a periodic basis from time to time as determined by the department head and the city manager or his designee. A drug and/or alcohol screening test based on reasonable suspicion can be undertaken in accordance with local regulations. All employees involved in a work-related incident causing personal injury or property damage may be tested promptly for drug and/or alcohol use in accordance with department policies. Any employee involved in a motor vehicle accident while driving a city vehicle on a public roadway and who is determined to have been at fault in the accident by the investigating police officer shall be tested for drugs and alcohol. Voluntary participation in an employee assistance program prior to an employee being requested to submit to a test is encouraged and such participation shall be kept confidential.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-20; Ord. of 8-26-2013, § 1)

Sec. 70-50. - At-will employment.

Employment by the city creates an at-will employment relationship between the city and its employees. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to establish or to confer a contractual right of employment. The city council may establish a contract for the position of city manager.

Secs. 70-51—70-80. - Reserved.

ARTICLE III. - COMPENSATION

Sec. 70-81. - Generally.

- (a) Policy and purpose. It is the policy of the city and the purpose of this article to establish a compensation system that will allow the city to effectively compete for qualified personnel and to ensure that salaries are equitable and commensurate with the duties performed by each employee.

- (b) Pay range schedule. The city's pay range schedules include minimum and maximum pay allowed by grade. The pay range schedules for employees shall be adopted by the city council. An employee's salary may not exceed the maximum step of their position's assigned pay grade.
- (c) Cost-of-living. Cost-of-living adjustments may be granted by the city council upon recommendation by the city manager. If granted, they are generally effective on July 1. If a cost-of-living adjustment is made, the salary range allowed by grade will change by the amount approved by the city council. The employee's pay shall be adjusted in the range to reflect the cost-of-living increase.
- (d) Reevaluation. If the salary of any position is reevaluated by the city manager and results in an increased salary range for the position, the employee shall retain his current salary within the range or assume the entry level step of the new range, whichever is greater.

- (e) Classification plan. Jobs with similar duties and responsibilities are assigned to the same salary level. The city manager conducts periodic studies of various jobs when there is an indication the employee is working above or below the established responsibilities for that position.
- (f) Maintenance of the salary plan. The city manager, or his designee, shall be responsible for the continuous maintenance and administration of the city's compensation plan. The review will include an analysis of prevailing rates of pay for similar positions in comparable labor markets, organizations, cost-of-living factors, budgetary considerations, and other related factors. On the basis of this information, the city manager shall recommend to the city council changes to keep the plan current, uniform and equitable. Such changes shall be approved by the city manager and shall then be submitted in the annual budget to the city council for approval.
- (g) New employees. New employees will ordinarily be paid the minimum rate in the appropriate salary range. Exceptions to this policy may be approved by the city manager if funds are available in the adopted budget and if the need is warranted. (Code 1989, § 2-5-28; Ord. No. 05-04-26, 4-26-2005)

Sec. 70-82. - Overtime.

- (a) Fair Labor Standards Act. This section shall not contravene the provisions of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) pertaining to the minimum rate of compensation for employment in excess of an established workweek/period, excluding exempted positions.
- (b) Qualification. To be eligible for overtime pay, the employee must have actually been present at work for the specified number of hours except on council designated holidays. However, employees working a flex-schedule are not eligible for overtime pay on a council designated holiday unless they work on the day coinciding with the council designated holiday. For all nonexempt employees, only hours worked count towards calculating overtime pay.
- (c) Payment. The city's responsibility for payment of overtime is as follows: The city will generally compensate overtime at the rate of 1½ for hours worked in excess of the number of hours allowed per work week/period defined below:
 - (1) Nonexempt employees will be paid at the rate of 1½ for hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week.
 - (2) Sworn police officers (207(k) employees) will be paid at the rate of 1½ for hours worked in excess of 86 hours in a 14-day work period.
 - (3) Firefighters (207(k) employees) will be paid at the rate of 1½ for hours worked in excess of 212 hours in a 28-day work period.
- (d) Roll call/training. All time spent by 207(k) employees in roll call and in training sessions is counted as hours of work but employees are not compensated at the overtime rate for roll call or training hours unless the total hours worked exceeds the maximum hours standard (police-171, fire-212).
- (e) Compensatory time. Compensatory time shall be earned at a rate not less than 1½ hours for each hour of employment in excess of the maximum hours worked as defined in section 70-42. Accrued compensatory time shall not exceed 40 hours.
- (f) Call-back pay. If an employee is called back to work outside of normal working hours, he will be guaranteed a minimum of two hours pay.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-29; Ord. No. 04-04-13, 4-13-2004; Ord. of 7-11-2006; Ord. No. 018-2007, 12-17-2007; Ord. No. 2008-0016, Exhs. A, B, 7-28-2008)

Sec. 70-83. - Date of hire/anniversary date.

The term "date of hire" shall mean the effective date of the individual's employment with the city. The term "anniversary date" shall mean the date the employee began his employment in the most recent position. A regular employee who is promoted, demoted or transferred will have his anniversary date changed to the effective date of the promotion, demotion or transfer. A regular employee returning from a leave of absence without pay will have his anniversary date extended by the same length of time the employee was on leave without pay. There will be no change in an employee's anniversary date in the following instances: Reallocation of an employee's position to a new classification title when there have been no recent, abrupt and/or significant changes in assigned tasks and responsibilities. An employee reinstated to the same position or a position in the same class following layoff from the city will have his anniversary period extended by the same length of time as the duration of the layoff.

(Code 1989, § 2-5-30)

Sec. 70-84. - Demotions and promotions.

The following rules shall apply to demotions:

- (1) An employee reassigned to a position in a lower classification regardless of the reason (disciplinary, in lieu of layoff, for reasons of disability or incapacity, department reorganization, etc.) will receive a cut in pay commensurate with the nature of the demotion as determined by the department head and human resource director in consultation with the city manager.
- (2) Demotions do not change the person's date of hire. However, the anniversary date for future salary increases changes.
- (3) No employee shall be demoted to a position for which he does not possess the minimum qualifications.
- (4) An employee being demoted shall be notified two weeks prior to demotion except in emergency situations.
- (5) Any demotion to prevent layoffs may be revised when the employee's previous position is reopened.
- (6) Persons demoted to new positions will be subject to the standard probationary period for the new position.
- (7) Employees in position classifications which are downgraded (or upgraded) in salary to reflect changes in market conditions will retain their existing anniversary date for future increases.
- (8) The city shall attempt to fill all vacant positions with qualified city employees before advertising to the general public, following a policy of upward mobility whenever possible.
- (9) Generally, employees are expected to serve in their current position for at least a year before being considered for a promotion or transfer.
- (10) The selection of an employee for a promotion (or lateral transfer) is based on the employee's past work record, education, knowledge of the job duties, as well as time in service.
- (11) When considering the promotion (or lateral transfer) of city employees having the same or similar qualifications, the position will be filled after considering the factors listed in subsection (10) of this section.

- (12) In cases where only one employee applies for a position and the person's abilities and qualifications are known to the hiring department, the formal selection process may be dispensed with upon concurrence of the city manager.
- (13) No offer of promotion may be made to any employee prior to completion of the recruitment and selection process.
- (14) Whenever an employee is promoted to a higher position, such employee will enter the new grade/position at the entry level of the new position. If the entry level of the new position does not provide a salary increase of five percent or more, the employee shall enter at the level which provides a salary increase of five percent or more so that the designated rate aligns with a grade/step on the adopted pay schedule. The new pay rate, upon promotion, shall not exceed the maximum of the new pay range.
- (15) Promotions do not change the person's date of hire. However, the anniversary date for future pay increases will be revised to coincide with the promotion date.

Transfers are made only when the city's service will benefit. All else being equal, current city employees will be given priority for open positions.

Employees who exceed the minimum requirements for the position may be offered a salary consistent with the employee's level of skills, experience and knowledge, but in no case shall the salary be more than ten percent above the entry level pay for the position unless prior approval is obtained from the city manager.

- (2) Pay. If an employee is temporarily assigned to a position that is equal or lower in pay grade than his/her regular position, the employee's pay will not change. If the employee is temporarily assigned to a position that is in a higher pay grade than his/her regular position, pay will not change during the first 30 calendar days of the temporary assignment. If the employee remains in the higher rated position for more than 30 calendar days, the employee's pay will be adjusted to at least the entry level of pay for the temporary job for the remainder of the assignment.  - (2) Continue to participate in the group medical coverage plan under the criteria outlined below:
 - a. Rights of employee. Employees presently covered by the insurance plan or health maintenance organization (HMO) may continue this coverage for up to 18 months from the date that employment terminates or status changed to a nonparticipating (noninsured) employment status provided that the employee pays the full cost of premium and any administrative fee (up to two percent) that may be imposed.
 - b. Rights of a spouse of employee. The spouse of an employee covered by the medical plan or a sponsored HMO has the right to continue coverage if the employee was terminated or changed to nonparticipating employment status, or if a divorce or legal court-decreed separation from the employee took place. Coverage under these circumstances may continue for a period up to 36 months provided that the spouse pay the premium in full and any administrative fee (up to two percent) that may be imposed.
 - c. Rights of children. Dependent children of an employee covered by the medical plan or a sponsored HMO have the right to continue coverage if group health coverage under the medical plan is lost because of termination of a parent's employment or change to nonparticipating employment status; parents' divorce or legal court-decreed separation; or the dependent ceases to be a dependent child under the medical plan. - (c) If an employee or eligible spouse or dependent does not elect to continue coverage, group health insurance will end as scheduled under the plan.
- (d) If an employee elects to continue group medical coverage, the employee or eligible spouse or dependent is responsible for paying the entire cost (both employer and employee share). This cost will be subject to periodic rate changes. Employees are not required to show that they are insurable (by taking a medical exam) to continue the coverage.
- (e) Continued coverage may be terminated earlier than the 18-month or 36-month period if group medical plans for all other employees are terminated, or if the employee or eligible spouse or dependent:

- (1) Fails to remit the required monthly payments within 31 days of the due date;
- (2) Becomes eligible under any other group medical plan and has satisfied the pre-existing exclusion provision under the new plan;

- (n) Holidays. Paid holidays occurring during personal leave are not charged to personal leave.
- (o) Compensatory time. Compensatory time off must be exhausted before personal leave is taken, even if this will result in accrued personal leave being forfeited.

Sec. 70-244. - Grievance/appeals process.

(a) The grievance procedure is established to provide opportunity to non-probationary employees to bring to the attention of management, situations that directly affect the employee's working conditions. It is the intent and desire of the city to adjust complaints or grievances informally, and both supervisors and employees are expected to make reasonable efforts to resolve problems as they arise. However, it is recognized that there will be grievances, which will be resolved only after an appeal and review. The submission of a grievance by an employee shall in no way adversely affect the employee or their employment with the city.

- (b) Only full-time and part-time employees who have completed the initial probationary period are eligible to file appeals or grievances under this procedure. Employees who are currently assigned to probationary periods based on promotion, demotion, or transfer who have completed the initial probationary period are considered eligible to file appeals or grievances under this section.
- (c) In order to assure non-probationary employees', a method by which the employee can get a particular grievance considered rapidly, fairly and without reprisal, the following steps are provided:

Step 1 — Supervisor

The aggrieved employee shall, within three working days of the incident, explain and discuss the complaint or grievance orally with the supervisor involved. Higher level supervision may be called into the discussion in an effort to achieve a prompt adjustment.

The supervisor will make a decision and notify the employee in writing within a reasonable time after discussion with the employee. Normally a reasonable time as used herein would be considered to be three working days. Circumstances may warrant a longer time frame. Ultimately, the city manager will determine whether the response was within a reasonable time.

The supervisor must provide the department director with a copy of the written decision.

Step 2 — Department Director

If the aggrieved employee feels that the matter has not been settled or adjusted to his/her satisfaction by the supervisor, they may submit the matter in writing to the department director within three working days from receipt of the answer in Step 1.

The department director or his/her designee, shall meet with the employee within a reasonable time. The department director or his/her designee will provide a written answer to the employee within a reasonable time.

The department director must provide the human resources director copies of all relating documents and the written decision in Step 2.

The department director at Step 2, is the final appeal level for all grievance and appeals other than adverse actions as defined in section 70-243(2), grievances involving sexual harassment; or grievances regarding actions under section 70-3, Discrimination which are herein referred to as "Appealable Grievances."

Step 3 — City Manager

If the aggrieved employee feels that an appealable grievance has not been settled or adjusted to their satisfaction by the department director, they may submit the matter in writing for review by the city manager. Requests to submit grievances or appeals to the city manager must be submitted to the human resources director within five working days from receipt of the answer in Step 2.

The city manager or his/her designee shall meet with the employee within a reasonable time after receipt of the grievance. The city manager or their designee will provide a written answer to the employee and the human resources director within a reasonable time.

Step 4 — City Council

If the aggrieved employee feels that the matter has not been settled or adjusted to their satisfaction by the city manager, they may submit the matter in writing for review by the city council. Requests to submit grievances or appeals to the city council must be submitted to the city clerk within five working days from receipt of the answer in Step 3.

The city council has the option to hear or decline to hear any appeal

- (d) Any grievance shall be considered settled on the basis of management's response at the completion of any step, unless it is appealed within the time limits set forth.
